++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A wet start, but a drier and brighter afternoon.

Today:
Cloudy with some heavy rain first thing, however turning drier and brighter by lunchtime. Sunny spells and the odd shower through the afternoon. Feeling fresher than of late, and fairly breezy. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers dying out during the early evening, then dry with clear periods for a while overnight, and feeling colder. Becoming windy later, with further heavy rain likely by the morning. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Sunday:
Another wet start to the day, with some heavy rain. Turning somewhat drier and brighter by the afternoon, though showers near the coast, and these developing elsewhere later. Very blustery. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining unsettled through the start of the week. Often rather windy with some showers at times. Some sunny spells too, but temperatures below average for the time of year.
